

GB Railfreight Appoints a New Asset Director

David Golding, GB Railfreight's new Asset Director

GB Railfreight has announced the appointment of David Golding as Asset Director. David joins from beyond the rail industry having had previous experience in supply chain, operations and continuous improvement director roles.

John Smith, Managing Director of GB Railfreight, said: "A big GBRf welcome to David Golding. We are delighted to have him joining our team and I can't wait to work with him